The Epistle Dedicatory.

To the Reverend

Increase Mather, D. D.

President of Harvard Colledge in Cambridge, Teacher of a Church in Boston, and one of the Commissioners for the Propagation of the Gospel among the Indians in AMERICA.

Reverend SIR,

OF the Sermons herewith emitted, the Translation is only mine (which hath been approved by divers Reverend persons much longer and better versed in the Indian Language, than my self) the rest under Christ is yours, an Offspring whereof you have no reason to be ashamed, though in a Salvage dress, it waits upon its Reverend Father for his blessing. We were the most unjust People in the world if we should not thankfully acknowledge the very self denying and generous piety, which our Lord hath given you to exercise, in Printing many profitable Treatises, in which you have not given unto God that which cost you nothing, nor sought (your family are witnesses) your own profit, but the profit of many, that they might be saved; nor yet your own worldly glory, as is evident, inasmuch as (notwithstanding your vast Learning) you stoop down to a most plain style; so accommodating the greatest mysteries of Religion unto the meanest Capacities. On which account, I am very confident the whole world will commend my choice as to the Sermons I have pitched upon, for the present Translation; since the Conversion and Edification only of those who of all mankind stand in most need of the greatest plainness, was my professed duty and design. Having been imployed together with the Reverend Mr. Grindal Rawson, by the Honorable the Lieutenant Governour and Commissioners of the Honorable Corporation, to visit all the Indians in this Province, I have had Opportunity to see and hear that among them which encourages me more than ever, to think that the great Charge and pains expended for their good, is not wholly in vain. The faith and piety which many of them manifested before their departure out of the world; the importunity of those yet living, that that the Gospel might still be Preached to them; their reverend and diligent Attention to the word when Preached; their extraordinary Inquisitiveness into the meaning of such Scriptures as are dark to them; their care to teach their Children to Read and Write, and to learn them their Catechisms, are hopeful and encouraging signs that God hath some Mercy in store for them. Now since the Divine Blessing (without which Paul may plant and Apollo may water in vain) waits but the imploring, you will not be wanting in your fervent Supplications, that he that only can, would graciously please to make me not a Minister only of the Letter, but of the Spirit, and that being assisted from above unto Watchfulness, Faithfulness and Diligence, and every other needful vertue, I may both save my self and those that hear me. Thus, with earnest Prayers, that you may yet live to be a further blessing in your Generation, that English and Indians, the Colledge, the Church and the World, may long enjoy the benefit of your Faith, Prayers, Cares and Labour for their good: I take leave and remain,

Reverend Sir,
Your most Obedient Son and Servant
in Christ Jesus,

Taunton, 14*th*. 8. 1698.

Postscript.

THIS may certify, that in the Narrative lately Printed of the Visitation of the Indians in this Province, by the Reverend Mr. Grindal Rawson and my self, there was an unhappy Omission of the due Character of Mr. Experience Mayhew, who having gained a great Expertness and Skill in the Indian Language, beyond most of those of the English who labour in that work, doth with indefatigable pains and labour endeavour the Instruction and Conversion of the Indians on Martha's Vineyard, constantly Preaching to them every Sabbath day, and is engaged also in the Translating of a Book into the Indian Tongue, which will when it comes forth in Print, give a more full and and Convictive Teſtimony to the World of his great diligence, in Endeavoring the Saving good of the poor Natives, and of the high eſteem which all ſuch ought to have of him who ſincerely pray for the Propagation of the Goſpel among them, than I am able to compriſe in theſe few lines.
